Triple C Farm Goat Sales Agreement:

Triple C Farm General Sales Policies:

1. Goats are social animals and a single goat will not be sold unless buyer already owns goats.
2. We cannot guarantee that a goat is show quality nor can we guarantee the amount of milk a doe will produce.
3. We test for CAE, CL, Johnes and have always had negative results. However, we cannot guarantee that a goat will remain disease free for life.
4. We cannot guarantee adult animal height or an animal's adult conformation. Breeding animals is not an exact science.
5. Because the stress of moving and other environmental factors (including changes in climate, diet, shelter, care, companionship, etc.) can have unpredictable effects on goats, Triple C Farm cannot be responsible for the health of your new goat(s) once it/they leave(s) our farm. Therefore, upon purchase, the risks of illness, injury, loss and the costs associated transfer to the new owner(s). It is the buyer's responsibility to be aware of and to practice proper goat management as well as have access to a qualified veterinarian.
6. All sales are final. We will not accept back a goat once it has left our farm. Should an event arise and you need to re-home the goat, we will be happy to help you in your search for a new owner.
7. Should a buck ever be collected Triple C Farm reserves the right to be notified and allowed to pay additional money for an extra 20 straws to be collected at our expense.

Triple C Farm Sales Contract

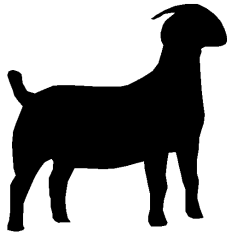

A non-refundable deposit of ½ the total purchase price is required to hold goat(s). The deposit will only be refunded in case of illness, injury or death of purchased goat(s) while still on the seller's premises.
